

Warranty

Transformer Pads/Pedestals

2 Year Warranty

(Structural Composite Technologies.) Will free of Charge, repair or exchange, at our opinion, any unit found to be defective in material and workmanship and not perform according to factory specifications. If any parts prove to be defective within a period of two years from the date of Purchase. Providing proper installation methods are used as per installation instructions. All claims must be made through the local representative. If product is replaced it will be F.O.B our plant. No allowances will be made available for other costs incurred (labor, travel).